Also one ship, unknown.

Missellancous. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning a thick snow storm (wind E set in, and continued until 4 PM, when rain commenced. Pilot bests arriving from sea yesterday morning reported a heavy mile outside from ENE, with thick snow. Lest evening they seported the wind outside the Hook from ENE, and blowing a gale. There have been but few arrivals from sea. Ship Liverpool, Capt Kearney, from London, is near the Middle in the lower bay, with both anchors down and 75 fathoms of chain out to each. There is another ship in the bay outward bound. The tide was very full on Wednesday night, and we may expect to hear of some damage to merchandise on the piers and in cellars fronting on the rivers. The easterly wind has given the drift lee in on Staten Island shore, and some Bas driven the drift lee in on Staten Island shore, and some difficulty was experienced by the ferry boats in getting from the landing. The following steamships are due:—The John Bell, from Giasgow; Ariel, from Aspinwall; Rosnoke, from Norfolk, with the wrecked passengers of Bremen ship Globus, and George's Creek, from Charleston. Steamships Montgom ery, for Savannah, and Parkersburg, for Wilmington, NC left their piers and probably anchored below.
